Description Currently, in Ceph Docs there's a mixture of naming to refer to what originally were "Ceph-Mgr Modules". Apart from the original module term, in documentation there're plenty references to them as plugins. As the command-line token for Ceph-Mgr is module, we might want to keep just that denomination.

Whoops, I actually created #38481 without noticing this one. In any case, the docs have been updated to improve this.
